

Contents

Acknowledgments
Introduction	1
Chapter 1: Why Go?	5
Taking a stand. Chickening out. Galvanizing forces. Individual examples.
Chapter 2: Go where and do what?	15
Reasons. Delegations. Peace teams.
Accompaniment projects. Real-life examples.
Chapter 3: What will people say?	25
“Coming out” as a peace activist. Challenges and reactions.
Talking to people from different groups. More hard questions.
Chapter 4: Isn't it dangerous?	39
Fear and grace. Limelight and stage fright. Traveling in a strange land. Dangers. When should we leave?
Chapter 5: Who will know or care?	51
Variations. Specific roles for supporters. Moral support. Logistical support.
Publicity management. So many are involved. Others who care.
Chapter 6: Learning about soldiers	65
Reading about soldiers. Real soldiers and real guns. Soldiers for peace.

Chapter 7: Christian Peacemaker Teams	87
Overview. Organization Training. The application process. What CPT provides. Language. Room, board and guidance. Short-term delegations. Expenses and spending money. Civil disobedience. Danger. Sharing the news. Headquarters. Demographics. Destinations.
Chapter 8: Voices in the Wilderness	97
Overview. Background. The application process. Training. Language. Room, board and guidance. Expenses and spending money. Civil disobedience. Danger. Sharing the news. Headquarters. Demographics.
Chapter 9: Peace Brigades International	113
Overview. Organization. Background. The application process. Training. What PBI provides. Language. Room, board and guidance. Danger. Headquarters. Demographics.
Chapter 10: Other travelers, other work	123
International Solidarity Movement. Friends Peace Teams. American Friends Service Committee. Fellowship of Reconciliation. Services International para la Paz. Reality tours and delegations. Humanitarian aid. Radical fringe. Other work.
Chapter 11: The way of the future	137
Challenges and rewards. Questions about effectiveness. Organizational weaknesses. The role of the technology. The way of the future: Nonviolent Peaceforce.
Appendix. Contact Information
Cotact information for all organizations mentioned.....	147
Annotated Resources.....	149
Index	155
About the Author	161