

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Living Green — an Introduction	1
The Relationship between People and their Built Environments ...	3
Meanings of Home	4
The Green Building Movement	6
Linking Communities and Built Environments	10
Highlighting the Social in the Three Es of Sustainability	13
Part 1: Community
Chapter 1: Back to the Land	19
Twin Oaks: An Experiment in Communal Living	21
Living Green at Twin Oaks	25
Oujé-Bougoumou	29
Living Green at Oujé-Bougoumou	33
Maintaining Community through Sustainable Design + Interaction	36
Chapter 2: Living Green through Cohousing	39
Cohousing as Green Living	40
Planning and Building Together	41

Community Living as Green Living	46
Actions that Sustain	54

Part 2: Social Justice and Sustainability

Chapter 3: An Alternative for Los Angeles	59
Beginnings.....	61
Intentional Community at LA Ecovillage	65
Car Free in LA.....	69
A Permaculture Approach to Social Activism	72
Community Outreach and Connection	74
Cultivating Action.....	77

Chapter 4: Greening Grey	79
Social Housing: Historical Roots, Current Vision	83
Chez Soi at Green Energy Benny Farm	84
Living Green at Chez Soi.....	88
Sustainable Aging in Community	91

Chapter 5: Greening Affordable Housing	95
The Context: The City of San Francisco.....	97
SOMA: The Neighborhood and its History	100
The Project: Developing Green + Supportive Housing.....	103
Promoting Social Sustainability at Folsom/Dore.....	107
Lessons Learned from Folsom/Dore.....	112

Part 3: Personal Choice — Living Green as Individuals

Chapter 6: A Love Affair — The Cazadero
Nature and Art Conservancy.....	117
Margaret Fabrizio.....	118
Traveling to The Land.....	120
Art and The Land: Collaborating with Nature.....	122
Adding Small Structures	125
The Side Effect of Social Connection	127
Human-Environment Connection	128

Chapter 7: Mainstream Green	133
Greening the Nuclear Family Home	134
Green Housing for the Masses:
Rethinking Little Boxes on a Hillside.....	139
Thinking Beyond Single-Family Homes:
Redesigning Neighborhoods	142
Sustainable Building Practices at Dockside Green	145
Living Dockside Green.....	147
People Make it Green.....	150
Lessons Learned: The Ten Cs of Social Sustainability	155
1 - Culture	156
2 - Context	158
3 - Citizenship.....	160
4 - Commitment	162
5 - Collaboration	164
6 - Connectedness.....	165
7 - Care	167
8 - Contact	168
9 - Commons.....	169
10 - Continuity	170
Endnotes	173
Works Cited	180
Index	186
About the Authors	197