

Contents

Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xix
Introduction	1
1. What Is Christian Hegemony?	3
2. Manifestations of Christian Hegemony	11
Language	16
Names	19
Symbols	20
Original Christians	21
The Other	22
Credibility	24
Exotic and Erotic	25
Privilege	26
Christian Holiday Cycle	28
New Year's Eve	29
Washington's Birthday/Presidents' Day	29
St. Valentine's Day	30
Good Friday/Easter	31
Mother's Day	31
Independence Day/The Fourth of July	32
Columbus Day	32
Halloween	33
Thanksgiving	33
Christmas	34

3. Key Christian Concepts	37
Dualism	40
Qualities	42
The Cosmic Battle: Good and Evil.	43
Love Within Hierarchy	46
Sinners Need Salvation	50
One Truth, One Way to God	53
Temporal Focus	55
Dominion Over Nature	57
Challenging Dominant Concepts	59
4. The Way We Think	61
Our Bodies and Feelings Are Sinful	61
Judgment	63
Salvation.	65
Purity	66
Christian Narratives.	68
Conversion Narrative.	68
The Jeremiad	70
Captivity Narrative.	71
We Need a Savior	73
Charity	75
History	77
Apocalypse	79
Fear and Hope.	83
Science and Technology	84
The Economy	89
The Criminal Legal System	91
Education	94
The Body, Desire and Disability	97
Doctrine of Discovery	103
How Do These Christian Ideas Manifest in Our Lives?	104
5. Origins and History	109
The Papal Reformation	110

The Crusades	111
The Inquisitions	115
Witch Hunts	119
The Protestant Reformation	122
Colonization: Crusades in the New World	123
Missionaries Spreading the Word	125
Manifest Destiny	127
Slavery and Its Legacy	128
The Jewish Holocaust	130
6. Public Policy	133
US Foreign Policy	133
Us and Them	134
Manifest Destiny and War	136
International Influence	139
Nongovernmental Organizations (NGOs) and Faith-based Funding	140
Christian Zionism	143
US Domestic Policy	144
Political Involvement	144
Worker's Rights	145
Religious Immunity from Prosecution	146
Tax Breaks	147
Faith-based Initiatives	150
Proselytizing	152
Islamophobia as Public Policy	154
Health Care	157
Abstinence vs Harm Reduction	161
The War Against Women	163
Marriage	164
Domestic Violence	165
Parenting	167
Education	169
Environmental Issues	170
Seeing Through and Beyond Christian Frameworks	172

7. Resistance	175
Christian Resistance	176
Resistance Outside of Christianity	180
Talking About Christian Hegemony	182
Allies, Collaborators and Agents	189
For the Long Haul	193
Appendix: Guidelines for Christian Allies	197
Glossary	199
Endnotes	203
Bibliography	241
Resources on Christian Hegemony and Resistance	271
Index	273
About the Author	283