

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	1

Part I: Reclaiming the Commons as Memory

Chapter 1: At an Impasse.....	9
Chapter 2: Crossing a Threshold.....	13
Chapter 3: To the Shieling.....	15
Chapter 4: A Field in Good Heart.....	21
Chapter 5: Duthchas and the Ethos of the Commons.....	25
Chapter 6: Coming Home to the Sacred.....	31
Chapter 7: The Tragedy of the Commons Revisited	41
Chapter 8: Feudal Land Charters and Private Property.....	47
Chapter 9: The Real Tragedy of the Loss of the Commons.....	51

Part II: Reclaiming the Commons as Practices

Chapter 10: From Premodern Past to Digital Present.....	59
Chapter 11: Reclaiming the Commons on Gabriola Island	67
Chapter 12: Capacity Building #1 — Healing and Connecting with Our Selves	75

Chapter 13: Capacity Building #2 — Healing, Habitats and Reconnecting with Nature.....	81
Chapter 14: Capacity Building #3 — Ecoliteracy and Knowing through Implicated Participation.....	87
Chapter 15: Capacity Building #4 — Commoning Knowledge and Knowledge Commons.....	95
Chapter 16: Capacity Building #5 — Commons Organizing and the Common Good.....	101
Chapter 17: Capacity Building #6 — A Spirit Dialogue, Reconnecting with Creation.....	111

Part III: Reclaiming the Commons – a Manifesto

Chapter 18: An Historical Frame for Current Activism.....	121
Chapter 19: Some Personal Acts of Reconnection.....	129
Chapter 20: Gardening, Agroecology and Forming Relationships with the Land.....	135
Chapter 21: An Economy of Fair Trade and Right Relations....	143
Chapter 22: Common Knowledge and Knowledge Commons.....	155
Chapter 23: Re-enfranchising People as Commoners, Participants in Responsible Self-Governance.....	165
Chapter 24: The Commons as Culture, Community and Creation.....	175
Chapter 25: Common-Good Governance Locally and Globally.....	183
Glossary.....	193
Endnotes.....	197
Acknowledgments.....	217
Index.....	219
About the Author.....	229