

Contents

Foreword by Joel Salatin	ix
Preface	xiii
Introduction	1
Money in the Yard	2
A Few Tools to Rule Them All: A Basic Tool Box	5
Wheelbarrow or Garden Cart?	10
Holidays, Birthdays, and Achieving a Homestead	13
1. In the Garden	15
Small Starts Lead to Success: Garlic in Boxes	16
Perennial Cardboard Plant Protectors	19
Easy Raised Beds with Slab, Scrap Wood, Straw Bales, or Concrete Blocks	19
The Mess of Hay, Straw, Manure and Compost	22
Fencing and Mulching with Sheet Metal	23
Mineral Tote Growing Bins	26
Growing Up Instead of Out: Plant Cages, Trellising, and More	27
Safety First	30
Turn Your Homestead Work into Wages	30
Pallet Propagation and Drying Tables	31
Compost Underneath the Tables	33
Compost	34
Extending the Seasons and Excluding Pests: Low Tunnels	41
Multi-Use Makes a Big Difference	42
Simple Garden Gate	43

Plastic Baggies and Pantyhose	45
Don't Underestimate the Danger of Drift.	46
Information Box: Turn a Trampoline into Almost Anything	47
Basic Conversion	47
Where You Can Go from Here	48
2. For Your Animals	51
Fencing	52
Keeping Them Fed and Watered	56
Kid-Sized Infrastructure.	64
Keeping Animals Warm and Dry	66
Brooding, Roosting, and Bedding.	68
Keeping the Bugs at Bay	77
Winter-Time Light and Water	81
Information Box: Climbing Rope	85
Tire Swing	85
Bale Toppling.	85
Snow Cleaning	86
Load Securing	87
3. In the Barn and Workshop	89
Low-Cost Shelves, Quick Shelves	90
Tool Storage.	90
“Oiled Sand” to Stop Rust and Protect Your Tools	91
Storing All Your Stuff	91
Let There Be Light.	98
Information Box: The Many Uses of IBC Totes	105
Storing Kindling and Small-Sized Wood Scraps	105
Baker's Green Acre's Animal Feed Storage.	106
Worm Compost	106
Animal Shelter or Chicken Brooder	107
So Many Other Uses	107
IBC Tote, Plastic Barrel, and Other
Material Safety Concerns	108
What About a Cage With No Tote?	110

4. Outfitting Your Home	111
Trading Time for Money	111
Making Your Own Cleaning Supplies	113
Storing Your Surplus: Sloped Bucket Storage from Scrap Wood	114
Can You Store What You Grow?	116
Turning Trash into Treasure	117
Pieces of Scrap Pipe to Move Heavy Objects	120
Cinder-Block Shelves	120
Two Pairs of Shoes	121
Paint Your Entire House for Under a Hundred Bucks?	121
Cutting the Cost on Good Clothes	122
Finding Appliances and Furniture	123
Other Great Places to Grab Furniture— If the Amish Don't Come a-Calling	126
Information Box: Greenhouse Plastic	127
Covering Wood Piles	127
Solarizing Weeds	128
Low Tunnels	129
Cold Frames and Hot Boxes	130
5. Becoming More Self-Sufficient	131
Food	133
What is the Best Animal?	136
Learn Plant Propagation	140
Truly Free Food: Foraging from the Homestead	143
Eat Your Yard Out: The Benefits of Edible Landscaping	146
Medicine	147
Cooking When it Counts	149
Water	152
Heat	160
Community	168
Information Box: Combining Pieces and Projects	173
Pallets Plus Cattle Panels: Andy Buchler's Animal Shelter	173

Sheet Metal or Greenhouse Plastic + IBC Tote
Cages for Wood Storage	174
Simple Outdoor Storage	174
Speeding Up Wood Seasoning	175
Caleb’s Composite Bow	175
6. Sourcing and Resources	177
Construction Sites and Construction Supply Stores	178
Libraries	179
Craigslist	181
You Have Not Because You Ask Not	181
Freecycle	182
Facebook and Facebook Marketplace	182
Friends	183
Barter Makes Friendships Better	183
Salvage and ReStores	184
Pawnshops and Similar Businesses	184
Salvage and Tear Down	185
Estate Sales, Auctions, and Farm Auctions	185
Online Auctions	186
Thrift Stores	187
Roadsides and Parking Lots	187
Your Local Landfill or Recycling Center	188
Automated Online Shopping	188
Acknowledgements	191
Final Note	193
Index	195
About the Author	205
About New Society Publishers	206